

Speaker Guidelines

Women's ministries events are designed to uplift, encourage, and strengthen women in their relationship with Jesus. Every message should be positive and meaningful, reflecting the values of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

- Reflect Christ's Love in Every Presentation

Speakers ensure that the love and compassion of Jesus is evident in both words and tone.

- Uphold Church Beliefs and Standards

All presentations honor the beliefs and values of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Speakers agree to refrain from criticism.

- Affirm the Sanctity of Marriage and Family

All content supports and affirms God's design for marriage and family life.

- Maintain Neutrality in Politics

Speakers refrain from sharing personal political views to preserve a spiritually focused and inclusive environment.

- Respect the Audience's Convictions

Sensitivity to the local church or conference culture, beliefs, and values is essential. Speakers should be considerate and adaptable in their approach.

- Align with the Event Theme

Presentations should complement and reinforce the agreed-upon theme to ensure continuity and purpose throughout the program.

- Communicate and Confirm Logistics

Travel, lodging, meals, reimbursements, honorariums, and any other arrangements should be discussed and confirmed in advance to ensure mutual understanding.

- Demonstrate Professionalism

Speakers present themselves with care and professionalism, including appropriate attire and demeanor.

- Honor Time Guidelines

Staying within the time limits set by the coordinator or director is important to the overall flow of the event.

- Be Flexible and Cooperative

As the Host and Speaker discuss the program, Speakers should be willing to adjust (within reason) their content or approach to better serve the needs of the event and the direction of the host.
